Shop keepers would give you the food. You didn't get it off shelves. Shops didn't sell lots of different things. You had to go to different shops to get everything you needed.

Things did not cost as much money. £2 could buy you a whole week's shopping!

We have supermarkets now like Aldi, Asda and Tesco where we can buy all of our shopping and chose it ourselves.

We can also buy food on the internet.

Lots of shops around in the 1960s are gone today.

Decade = 10 years.

Present = Now.

Past = What has happened.

Year = time between our birthdays.
